ADVERTISING

Has created many a new business;
Has enlarged many an old business;
Has revived many a dull business;
Has rescued many a lost business;
Has saved many a failing business;
Has preserved many a large business;
And insures success in any business.

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS.

KEEP YOUR NAME BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING INSURES A FORTUNE.

IF BUSINESS IS DULL, ADVERTISE.

IF BUSINESS IS BRISK, ADVERTISE.

The man who didn't believe in advertising has gone into partnership with the sheriff, and that officer does the advertising. jy10d3m

ROBINSON, THE QUARTZ SWINDLER.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Feb. 25, 1873.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

DEAR SIR: I noticed in your paper of the 12th inst. an account of C. A. Robinson, the great quartz humbug. You stated on the authority of the San Francisco Bulletin that he had been arrested in San Francisco and held to bail for the sum of $500, and that he had given the required bond, etc. Now, in order that you and the people generally may become better acquainted with the said Robinson, I feel it my duty to give you a short history of the man, and his movements since I formed his acquaintance.

On the 6th day of July, 1865, I furnished him, through the request of Major McDaniel, an old acquaintance of Robinson's at Humboldt, and at that time residing in Lewiston, with horses, provisions, and money to the amount of about $400, to go and locate a certain quartz ledge that he said he had found late in the fall a year or two previous, which he stated was fabulously rich. He left my place in company with a gentleman by the name of Deen, on or about the 8th or 9th day of July. About the 10th of June, 1866, I accidentally heard that a man by the name of Robinson had passed up on the opposite side of Clearwater river from Lewiston with a company of men from San Francisco, conducting them to a rich quartz ledge that he represented he had found the previous summer somewhere in the spurs of the Bitterroot Mountains. Thinking, in all probability, that it might prove to be my Robinson, I started in company with Judge —— (now of Portland) and others for the purpose of overhauling them, and to learn the object of their excursion.

We found the company, composed of some 13 men, camped on Oro Fino Creek, about 50 miles up Clearwater from Lewiston, and among them we found the veritable C. A. Robinson. Of course he offered every kind and character of excuse for passing down to San Francisco and raising his company and passing up again without notifying me, &c., and then went on to give a full description of what he found during his excursions of the year before, stating that he had discovered numerous quartz ledges, on what he called Isabella creek, between the forks of Clearwater, that were exceedingly rich, and that he had reserved and intended to protect in my interest. At the same time (and he appeared to be particular to have his company hear it,) he offered me $10,000 for my interest, to be paid in one year from date, June 16th, 1866.

Believing that I saw and understood his object in making this offer, I suggested the fact to Mr. Dyer, the foreman of his company, that my convictions were that Robinson had no ledge or ledges and that he was humbugging all of us. I was well satisfied, and so also was Judge H—— and others of my party, that Robinson's object in offering me the amount he did, was solely for the purpose of inspiring confidence in his company toward him, in order that he could be suffered to take more liberty (as they had kept a watch over him), and thereby escape, which he did by stealing a canoe from an Indian who lives on Clear-water and putting down the river, and left us all to wonder, Where is Robinson? where is his ledge? and, more particularly, where is our money to the extent of several thousand dollars? Echo answered there was no ledge, and Robinson had the money. When the fact of his escape was known, his company disbanded, and of course we returned home, glad it was no worse with us; and this was the last heard from him, I believe, until a year or two afterwards, when he was heard of as conducting a company of men from Philadelphia by way of the Missouri river in the direction he claimed to have found the ledges of which he had told us, but he, being well acquainted with the mountains, gave them the slip also.

The next company, I think, he got up in the South somewhere, and after carrying them to the most convenient place for his escape, left them likewise. But I am informed that that he was overtaken somewhere on the Missouri river by one of his men and compelled to disgorge to the amount of eight or nine hundred dollars.

The next company is the one of which you speak—from Boston. This company he took through by way of San Francisco, and on arriving in the city he induced the company to embark on the steamer for Portland without him telling the company that it would not do for him to be seen in company with them, as there were many quartz men in the city, who, knowing him, and knowing also, that he had an immensely rich ledge in Idaho Territory, would in all probability follow them if they saw him. Therefore he proposed to keep himself hid until the steamer should start, when he would go aboard in a small boat without detection. The Boston men are inquiring for him now.

Now, Mr. Editor, I would like to see our country more densely populated, but I do not exactly approve of Robinson's method of doing it. The fact is, in my opinion, this Robinson is one of the most unscrupulous scoundrels that lives. I am opposed to capital punishment for anything but murder in the first degree; but if any man deserves to be hung for anything other than murder, he does.

The fact is pretty well known in this country that he has no ledge such as he has represented, and upon which he has obtained so much money.

And as I am somewhat connected with this thing (innocently, however,)—as are all others whom he has deceived,—I will here state that Robinson has no ledge worthy the attention of any one, but that he has some good rock that he got somewhere in the Boise or Owyhee country, that he puts on exhibition, and asserting that it came from a ledge or ledges that he found in or near the St. Joe district of country in northern Idaho.

I hope by this time his name has become so well known that everybody will shun him as they would a highwayman, as he is.

MADISON A. KELLY.

ANTI SECRET SOCIETY MEETING.—As a matter of information, but not as endorsing them by any means, we publish the following resolutions against secret societies lately adopted by a meeting held at Walla Walla. The resolutions are copied from the Spirit of the West, and the second one very likely contains a typographical error, but we publish verbatim:

1. Resolved, That organized secrecy is antagonistic to Christianity.

2. Resolved, That organized secrecy is compatible with the principles of all true civil government.

3. Resolved, That with the progress of this movement the time must come when Christian Churches cannot consistently fellowship as members, nor support as ministers, persons who continue to adhere to oath-bound secret societies.

4. WHEREAS, The well known obligations of some secret societies are incompatible with an impartial and faithful discharge of the duties of civil officers, therefore,

Resolved, That such men only should be elected to such offices as are untrammeled by such obligations.

Resolved, That the manifest favoritism shown by the members of secret societies in the employment, patronage and support of each other, is a clear violation of the common right of humanity, unjustly oppressing to many worthy men, and a practical infringement of the rights of private opinion and freedom of speech.

A spiteful contemporary, evidently edited by a bachelor, uses the following elaborate metaphor: "I have seen lovers look into each other's eyes with that sublimely silly expression characteristic of such unfortunates, somewhat like the piteous, appealing look of a forlorn calf going home through the rain." This expression has been patented.

A certain Mr. Baxter, an English gentleman, whose death has just been announced in the London papers, was probably the proprietor of more newspapers than any other person who has ever lived. He had papers in various parts of England—ten in Sussex, eight in Surrey, and six in Kent; but his most successful was understood to be the Sussex Agricultural Express.

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 5.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The President signed all the bills presented to him yesterday and to-day with the exception of sixteen, most of which are of a private character.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, March 4.—The Tribune's Washington special, referring to the proposed increase of Congressional salaries and reports of conferees on legislative appropriation bill, says Garfield professed he was opposed to the job and made some excuse about stubbornness of Senate conferees and how they could not hear of anything less than sum made. He hoped the House would adopt the report however, because if it did not, the bill would be lost. Sargent, too, tried to make members believe they must adopt the bill or lose it and thus make an extra session necessary. This was an inexcusable attempt to deceive inexperienced members. Garfield and Sargent and every old member knew that it has often happened that two or three conference reports on appropriation bills have been rejected up to the last night of session, and that the bills have finally been saved by a satisfactory report.

The following new Senators were sworn in at the meeting of the Senate of the 43d Congress to-day: Allison, Bogy, Cameron, Conkling, Conover, Dennis, Dorsey, Howe, Ingalls, McCreery of Kentucky, Mitchell, Morrill, Morton, Oglesby, Patterson, Sargent, Sherman and Merriman. Owing to some inadvertence Conkling's credentials had not been received, but Hamlin remarked that the Senator's election was a matter of public notoriety, and moved that the oath of office be administered to him, which was unanimously agreed to. Senators Gordon, Jones and Wadleigh did not appear.

NEW YORK, March 4.—It appears that the Directors of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, at a meeting held yesterday, agreed to purchase four of Webb's steamers for a million dollars, and made an appropriation for the completion of iron vessels for the route now fitting up. 27,030 shares of reserved stock of the company were sold when the stock was at par. It is understood that Stockwell, at the request of the Directors, placed in their hands additional collateral securities for mortgages on his private property.

A Lock-Picking Affair.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Mr. Lock, the twelfth juryman in the Scannell murder trial, is charged with having spent an evening recently at an oyster saloon where an attempt was made to fix him in Scannell's favor. It is understood that the matter will be presented to the grand jury.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The general committee of the Apollo Hall Democracy at a meeting held last evening elected John McCool chairman. His opposing candidate was Judge Spaulding. During the session, the police arrested one of the members, who was improperly voting as a substitute.

The Foster Case.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The Foster reprieve, it is understood, will be granted, although the Governor may consult with the Judges of the Court of Appeals. The prisoner's friends now think the sentence may be commuted to imprisonment for life and hard labor in Sing Sing. The news was received at the Tombs at a late hour, and when it was made known to Foster he was somewhat overcome. He said it was something he never expected.

A woman named Churchill died yesterday, and it was supposed her symptoms indicated yellow fever. The temperature of the weather, however, negatives the presumption. Investigations will be made.

Boston Check.

NEW YORK, March 5.—A suspicious person named Stanley, on Monday night applied at the Station House for lodging, when it was ascertained that he was a Boston highwayman, and that he had been sent to this city by the authorities after serving out his imprisonment. The authorities here, yesterday, sent him back to Boston.

About the Boss.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Yesterday, the argument on the preliminary points in Tweed's civil case was concluded. The decision was reserved.

Erie Developements.

NEW YORK, March 5.—In several telegrams from English stockholders in the Erie Railway Company, concerning ousting Gould from the Presidency, received a year ago, and first published to-day, it appears that the movement was entirely without Gould's knowledge, and moreover, the English stockholders had an inflexible determination to do nothing whatever which would involve any compromise with Gould or his agents.

A peculiar cattle hoof disease, said to result from salted tracks, is very prevalent here.

The Boss Thief Triumphant.

ALBANY, March 4.—The Senate by a vote of 17 to 15 refused to declare Tweed's seat vacant.

A Brief Respite.

In consequence of some facts connected with the conviction of Foster just presented to the Governor, he has directed the Sheriff of New York to suspend execution of sentence until Friday, 21st inst.

A Prize Fight.

PITTSBURG, March 4.—The prize fight between Hicken and Campbell, at Cally's Station, Virginia, this afternoon, for light weight championship, broke up in a row after 20 rounds had been fought. Campbell was badly pummeled, while Hicken was nearly untouched.

All About Big Mouth, et al.

LEAVENWORTH, March 4.—The Arrapahoe warriors, led by Big Mouth, visited the fort to-day, and inspected Morris' school.

PORTLAND, Maine, March 5.—The roads are badly blockaded by snow.

A woman named Clark was buried in the fire on Congress street.

Inauguration.

CHARLESTON, W. V., March 4.—Rev. John Jacobs was inaugurated as Governor to-day, and other State executive officers took the proper oath.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Collier Strike in Wales.

LONDON, March 4.—The strikers in Merthyr Tydvil at a meeting to-day resolved to return to work on their masters' terms for two weeks, and trust to the masters' honor for an advance of wages in the third week. It is probable that this decision will end the long strike.

Rumor Doubted.

LONDON, March 5.—A dispatch from Berlin states that the proposal of France to give financial guarantee sufficient to secure the early evacuation of French territory by German troops, is doubted there.

A Prince's Visit.

LONDON, March 5.—The son of the late Napoleon visited Queen Victoria yesterday.

Fenians in England.

A great Fenian amnesty meeting in Hyde Park, projected by the Irish population for March 16th. Isaac Butt, member of Parliament, will preside.

Disaster to Spain.

PARIS, March 4.—The Message de Paris publishes in an extra this evening, dispatches reporting that Serrano has been appointed Dictator of Spain, and that the Republicans have suffered a severe defeat at the hands of the Carlists near Irum.

The French Assembly.

Thiers made a great speech in the Assembly to-day. He re-affirmed his determination to maintain the pact of Bordeaux.

The preamble to the Constitutional project, declaring that the Assembly reserves to itself constituent power, was adopted by the Chamber by a vote of 475 to 199.

Hyacinthe Speaks.

Three hundred liberal Catholics have united in an address to Pere Hyacinthe urging him to resume the pulpit. The Father made a favorable reply, saying he was willing to preach to those who have resolved not to surrender to either ultra montanism or unbelief.

The French in Algiers.

PARIS, March 5.—A dispatch from Algiers says that seven hundred French troops, under Gallifet Chartres, were surrounded on the extreme south of Algeria by 10,000 Arabs, and were in imminent danger of capture. Re-inforcements have been dispatched to the besieged troops, but it is feared they will arrive too late.

American Festivities in Germany.

BERLIN, March 4.—A dinner was given to-night at the American Legation in honor of the inauguration of President Grant. Minister Bancroft presided. At his right sat Bismarck. The diplomatic corps was represented by its principal members. A toast to the President was offered by Bismarck, and Bancroft gave one to the health of the Emperor.

BAYONNE, March 4.—A passenger train for France was stopped by the Carlist chief Solva, on Saturday last, sixteen miles north of Barcelona, and compelled to return.

Insubordination is rife among the National troops at Reus and the authorities have resolved on vigorous measures to check it.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—It is reported that Dr. Morgan of this city, attempted to commit suicide last night, by taking a dose of poison. Medical assistance was summoned, and his life saved. The reasons for the act have been made known.

Mr. Mee, the attorney for Lizzie Gannon who shot at C. F. McDermott, publishes a card this morning in which he says he was employed by a friend of the prisoner, and that all he did for her in the examination was with her full consent and approval.

The weather is cloudy with a strong southwest wind, and promise of another rainstorm.

Rain commenced falling at 12.30 to-day.

Henry Hilderbrand and Angelo Tripp were held to answer this afternoon for grand larceny. The bail was fixed at $3,000 in each case.

James Dillon is held to answer for burglary; bail fixed at $2,000.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

The "Peace Commission a Failure."

YREKA, March 5.—The following dispatch was sent today by order of the Peace Commissioners to be given to the press:

HEADQUARTERS PEACE COMMISSION,
FAIRCHILD'S CAMP, March 4.

To Columbus Delano, Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C.: The Modocs emphatically reject all offers and propositions. They propose to meet in full force Meacham and Applegate with six men unarmed in the lava bed. This undoubtedly means treachery. We are still willing to meet them in conference, but not upon their terms. They have an accession of twenty-four warriors, not Modocs, without doubt. We will send a message with assurance of protection to all who may come out. The Commission is a failure. Instruct immediately. Time is of vast importance. Courier awaits.

A. B. MEACHAM,
Chairman Commission.

HEADQUARTERS PEACE COMMISSION,
COTTONWOOD, March 4, 1873.

Steel left here yesterday morning with instructions from the Peace Commission to offer the Modocs the following terms, as a basis for peace:

1st. To surrender as prisoners of war to General Canby, and to receive full amnesty for the past.

2d. To be removed to Angel Island and there clothed and fed and sheltered as the soldiers are, till a permanent home in some warmer climate, perhaps Arizona, may be found for them.

3d. To be clothed and sheltered from the weather till such time as they may be able to maintain themselves, their women and children, and to receive transportation to Angel Island and thence to their new home.

4th. General Canby is of the opinion that he can promise Captain Jack and some of his head men permission to visit the President.

The interview in the evening with the Indians was very unsatisfactory. Schonchin was quite hostile in his manner and speech; Captain Jack was pacific. Sixty-nine warriors were present at the Council twenty or more of whom were strangers to Steel. After the council Scar Faced Charley told Steel to sleep in his bed, as there was danger of his safety; that he would look out for him. Charley sat by him all night. In the morning Jack was decorated with a woman's hat, and Schonchin was the chief speaker. He was quite vicious in tone and manner. After he had finished speaking, Captain Jack made a war speech, and the woman's hat was removed from his head. Twenty-three warriors only were present at the morning council. Jack and Schonchin claimed that these were all the warriors they had, not thinking they had been counted the evening before. They finally proposed that if they could be left in the lava bed, and the past be forgotten, they would make peace. They wanted Meacham and Applegate to come to-morrow to shake hands and conclude peace. It is quite evident they intended treachery to these men. They did not want either the Commissioners, Rosborough, or Case to come to the lava beds, but said they could come if they pleased. Scar-Faced Charley wanted to settle the matter, and get away and behave like a man. This is all the Commissioners will allow Mr. Steele to make public at this time. It is thought that outside parties have been misrepresenting matters to the Indians who came out a few days ago.

Advantages of Ocean Transit.

Representative Walden of Iowa, in a speech recently made in Congress, on the subject of commerce by railroad and water, referred to the advantages which California possessed for entering into direct competition with Southern Germany and Russia for the grain trade of England, France and Belgium. He declared that California by reason of her ocean transit was the only grain exporting State which could enter profitably into this competition. He might have included Oregon, which has already exported this year something like fifteen cargoes of wheat direct from the Columbia river, and which is but the beginning of a vast grain export trade which is yet to be developed in that State.

The cost of transportation of wheat per bushel is shown in part by the following table:

	Cents.
Freight from St Paul to St. Louis	15
Transfer at St. Louis	3
Freight from St. Louis to New Orleans	12½
Transfer at New Orleans	2½
Freight from New Orleans to New York	20
Extra insurance	2
	55

The cost by the Chicago or Buffalo route from Dubuque and intermediate points to Liverpool, is shown in the following table:

	Hundred	Bushel.
From Dubuque by rail to Chicago	28.2	17.1
From Chicago to Buffalo	13.2	7 9
From Buffalo to Albany (canal)	8.7	5.2
Albany to New York (river)	2.7	1.6
New York to Liverpool	31.5	18.9
Add three transfers	1.5	.9
Total	86.1	51.6

The distance from Dubuque to Liverpool is 4,890 miles, and the cost per ton when the canals and rivers are open, is shown to be $17 09. But when these waterways are closed as they are for five months of the year, the cost per ton would probably exceed $20. Wheat freights from this port to Liverpool ranged higher during the past year than ever before. In some instances $20 a ton and a fraction more was paid, because there were not ships enough to carry off the freights. But when the supply of shipping increased, even $15 a ton was considered a good paying rate for transportation of over 20,000 miles. Taking one year with another, the grain shipper in San Francisco can lay down wheat in Liverpool for $5 a ton less than it can be done by the grain shipper in Chicago; and if to-day a shipper at each of these places should dispatch a cargo to Liverpool, the one would pay not less than $7 a ton in freight money more than the other.

But we have to do with facts of a much less encouraging character. Here is this vast carrying trade looming up, and already great enough to employ a fleet of three or four hundred merchant ships—ours by all natural advantages, and yet lost to us by a competition where we were once masters. It is not an American carrying trade, much less is it Californian. The shipper selects the best ships, and makes the most favorable terms. Is he to blame because these happened to be foreign bottoms? And who shall find fault with him, if he prefers an iron ship, when he can find it, with one to two per cent. less insurance rates on his cargo?

Are we an enterprising people? Is there any wide commercial grasp here, when, with this accumulation of capital seeking investment, we let the most lucrative commerce go as something not worth an effort to gain and hold? Who has built the first ship especially for the wheat carrying trade? Here are the forests, the mills, the mechanics and the freighting business. Sitting here by the sea, we are not mistress of it. We are more concerned with petty tolls than with millions of freight money. It is not the wrong side of the bay that troubles us, but a lack of interest on the right side of commerce. Chicago has created a lake fleet, because the freighting business demanded it. We have created no fleet worthy of the name, and none at all for foreign commerce. There are several millions of freight money to be earned during the coming year on cargoes furnished at this port. It is better that it should be earned by foreign bottoms than not at all. If a company were incorporated to-day to build twenty wheat ships to be owned here, would the stock in such a company be half as attractive as that of a wildcat mine? Political economists and others point out the geographical and commercial advantages of this State, and, especially of its chief maritime city. These have never been overstated. But the city having the second best port in the United States, and the best either on the North or South Pacific coast, has no fleet for foreign commerce, and gives over the best business ever offered here to any and all such foreign ship-owners as will come and take it.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Here is a specimen of the literature developed by the strike in South Wales:

"To Mr. William Morgan, Bute Row, Blaenavon:—Take notice, Blacklegs. Sir:—We are sending these few lines to you, stating you should better drop working as soon as possible, lest you should drop down without any notice. Do you think it right that you should work and see me walking about the roads starving? We shall call and see you some night and give you a tune, and perhaps we will have some of them pigs you have got in the house, too, and perhaps something else, too. Tell the other blacklegs of this, will you? About sixty will call and see you some night.

A most melancholy thing recently happened to a young gentleman in Paris. He had been dining out and winning pretty freely, and, as he was going to the bal d'opera, he submitted himself to the operation of a street shoe-black. Leaning back in his chair, he was soon asleep before the polishing was concluded; but when the juvenile artist found out the condition of his customer, he hastened to improve it. He gently drew off the boots, added his victim's purse and watch to the booty, gathered up his brushes and departed. The gentleman was at last aroused by his cold feet, and ignominiously made the best of his way home. There was no dancing for him that night.

At a recent meeting of the Congressional Temperance Society in Washington the Rev. Dr. Chickering stated, as a result of an extensive correspondence with Senators and Representatives, that about thirty per cent. of the members of the forty-second Congress are total abstinence men. He read several interesting extracts from letters he had received, one saying "Always total abstinence;" another, "I am a radical teetotaler and have been for forty-eight years." One Senator styled intemperance, "the greatest evil of the age, a deranger of all moral and social order and political purity," and wishes the secret of making strong drink were lost like the Greek fire, never to be recovered. One member expressed his readiness to vote a tax of ten dollars a gallon on all intoxicating liquors.

A Washington dispatch of February 27th says:

The sensations in the House debate yesterday were the speeches of Butler in defense of Ames, and Job Stevenson in favor of the Committee's report. Butler had an immense audience, which included Senators, Cabinet officers, foreign ministers and hundreds of others prominent in social and political circles. His speech is regarded as one of the strongest efforts of his life. It was filled with shrewd, keen points, and was received with repeated demonstrations of applause. He praised Ames as a model of the honest, truthful man, whose word was as good as his bond; a man of whom Massachusetts was proud. He denied that there was any moral wrong in the Ames sales of stock to members. He ridiculed the charge of bribery in connection with these transactions. It was the most peculiar style of bribery he had ever heard of. He (Ames) reckoned the interest on the bribes and haggled about the percentage. He bribed a man, and charged him interest on the bribe. Butler declared that it was not the transactions of members in the Credit Mobilier that had angered the public, but the lies that had been told about it. If every man who has had any connection with the matter had stood where Ames had with God's truth, this great storm would have blown over, and created scarcely a ripple on the political surface. In the course of his speech he made a fierce and characteristic onslaught on the press, denouncing it as a damnable engine of slander and lies; and shaking his finger at the reporters' gallery, said: "The origin of the Credit Mobilier slanders was the theft of papers in a suit by a reporter." Butler concluded with a criticism of certain points in the report in reference to Brooks.

Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, defended Brooks and Ames. He said that he would make no apology for engaging in the discussion. He was not to be silenced by false and malicious accusations against him. He commented in severe terms on the tone of the press generally, declaring that it attempted to dictate to the representatives of the people how they should discharge the duties enjoined by the obligations of their oaths. He ridiculed the claim that the report was in the interest of purity, and said they had better begin with those who were so pure that they proposed to condemn their neighbors in violation of their oaths, in violation of the Constitution and statute laws, and in violation of all precedents. He eulogized the character of Brooks and Ames, and closed with an appeal to the House to stand by the right of the people to representation, which right the report sought to subvert.

Mr. Shellabarger then replied, in a close, logical and legal argument, to the objections of Butler and others that the House had no right of expulsion of members for acts done before their election.

THURSDAY MORNING MAR[illegible]

Terms of Peace

If the dispatches do not represent incorrectly the state of affairs at the seat of the Modoc difficulties it is highly probable that the peace commission will succeed in patching up matters with Captain Jack. That [illegible] and his worthy having [illegible] the citizens of the State and finding himself now surrounded by the military and without hope of escape [illegible] ultimately to prove himself the honorable man which [illegible] commissioner is reported to have called him by surrendering himself and his band of murderers to the military as prisoners of war provided he can have assurances of amnesty for the murders they have committed and provided further that they can be secured in the possession of a good reservation in a less rigorous climate and that they furnish [them] with food and raiment for the remainder of their day

Upon these terms it is quite likely peace will be concluded unless the strong feeling of indignation which is already manifesting itself unmistakably in every section of the State should prove sufficiently potent at headquarters to cause the terms to be modified. So far as can be learned the conditions are deemed satisfactory on both sides at the immediate scene of action but on the side of the whites there is not authority to conclude the treaty and it is therefore necessary to refer it to the Secretary of the Interior, and if that functionary could be so far imposed upon and misguided in the first instance as to be induced to espouse the cause of the Modocs against the whites and send out these commissioners to interfere with and obstruct the operations of the army, and prevent the speedy and thorough chastisement of the refractory Indians and thwart the administration of the State laws we should have little hope of his being of different mind at this time. So it is probable that we shall soon be called upon to announce to our readers that peace has been consummated the Indian tribes advertised by the strongest of teachers' example, that there is much to be gained and nothing to be lost by insubordination to the authority of the Government and a band of murderers who have in cold blood and with a malice that is absolutely fiendish, taken the lives of a large number of persons within the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the State of Oregon, are to be protected from trial and punishment in due course of law. This certainly will be a most appropriate termination of the farce of sending peace commissioners to Jack, and a fitting supplement to the shallow sentimentalism that set this plan of operations on foot

Just at this stage of the proceedings, there looms a question which it appears to us ought to be of some weight in the settlement of these Indian troubles. Jack and his band murdered their victims within the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Oregon and not upon an Indian reservation. For this crime they were and are amenable to the laws of Oregon. They have been indicted, and would be tried as soon as captured but for this interference of the Peace Commissioners. It is proposed now to treat them as prisoners of war. But there is no war between them and the United States, in any sense in which that term is generally understood or as it is defined in the law books. If the Government chooses at this point in the progress of events to recognize the little band of Modocs as belligerents and confer upon them the rights of belligerents, so as to create a basis upon which to treat with them, it has, so far as we can see, the legal right to do even as ridiculous a thing as that, but it is not so easy to comprehend the logic by which that performance is to be held to relate back and shield them from the consequences of the crimes they committed against this commonwealth before they had that character of belligerents. And, besides, the State of Oregon is no party to these concessions, and can scarcely be expected to acquiesce without a word of protest against this mode of rescuing from justice those who have violated the laws, and murdered her citizens. We have not the slightest idea but that the general Government will dispose of this whole matter just as it pleases, but it does seem as if our State ought to have rights, which at least the Modoc Indian should consider himself bound to respect

A good deal has been said and written of late upon this Modoc Peace Commission, which, notwithstanding the opinion we entertain of the policy pursued by the Government, appears to us to partake much more of the nature of intemperate denunciation than just and dispassionate criticism. The character of the Commissioners is assailed as if they were responsible for the fact that a Commission was determined upon. This is neither just nor rational. It does not follow because the government made a mistake in adopting this plan for the pacification of the Modocs, that a man who accepts the office of Commissioner is a bad man any more than that the military officers who two years ago acted as Indian Agents, were to be blamed for the transfer of the Indians to the military department. These Peace Commissioners are men who have stood high and who have been trusted by the people of Oregon. They have borne the reputation of men of intelligence and integrity. They are certainly men who have had large experience on the frontier of Oregon and possess extensive knowledge of the habits and disposition of the Indians. If anybody was to be appointed for the purpose for which these men were named, we can not see that the selections are unfortunate. The fault is in the fact of sending men to interfere with the course of justice and prevent the chastisement of these savages, not in the character of the men sent. It is not the Commissioners but the Commission that calls for condemnation

Bishop O'Reilly, of Springfield Massachusetts, is very much discouraged at the immorality of society generally, but he thinks that Boston is a little the wickedest of all New England cities. He went to Boston, the other day, to tell the people about it. Said he "Mothers come to the priest with pitiful tales of daughters deceived and deluded and when the priest asked them 'why didn't you take better care of your girls?' the reply was 'I couldn't.' Oh this is the most accursed city that I ever had anything to do with in this way. I believe nine-tenths of all the people in it will go to hell mainly because of the way in which they bring up their families." That's a pleasant prospect for the nine-tenths, isn't it? The good Bishop indulges in no prophecy concerning the future state of the remaining one-tenth. He does not even comfort us with the assurance that they are bachelors. Seriously such sermons are calculated to interfere with the marriage license business?

Let Everybody Read

The movement lately set on foot in this city to procure the publication of documents containing information concerning the resources and advantages afforded in the State of Oregon to those who were seeking [illegible] of these things, with a view to emigrating, and settling here has already assumed a tangible and hopeful shape. The persons under whose management the matter has been in the first place [illegible] Hon W L Adams to [illegible] [illegible] for the printing [illegible] [illegible] pay the cost of [illegible] copies of the work which will be an octavo pamphlet of over forty pages, and will contain [illegible] [illegible] information as is desired by those who are seeking homes. The object of the [illegible] is not [illegible] to puff the country by giving a description of the many advantages offered to the settler and concealing the drawbacks and disadvantages but to furnish just such a work as the residents of the country would wish to send to their acquaintances and relatives in the older States and these can read and in reading receive a correct idea of what they may expect to find when they reach our State. Mr Adams is so well known in Oregon and has been so long identified with her interests that it would be superfluous for us to say that the arrangement by which he was secured to write the work in question was a wise measure on the part of the citizens who effected it and very satisfactory to those who have aided the enterprise, in this community

The work will be ready for distribution in the course of ten days, or two weeks at furthest and those desiring copies can obtain them by addressing Messrs Perry Woodard & Co of this city and forwarding only the cost of publication, which will be only $6 per hundred copies. As the work is not a local one but prepared in the interest of the whole State every community ought to take measures to obtain a number of copies so that the work may be as widely distributed as possible and everybody may read and reading may know what we have to offer as a country open to settlement and awaiting the development of her great resources. Orders for the work should be sent as above without delay, as it is desired to know about how many copies should be printed

Special contracts for salt lime cement iron and agricultural implements

It will be seen that these rates are far below those charged on the railways between the same points whenever the same points are reached by both. For instance, all freight except grain and flour is charged between Albany and Portland $7 for lowest class, and $11 20 for highest by rail, while by the river it is $1 70 for up freight and $3 for down freight—less than half the railway rates, on an average. On wheat the railway charge is $4 60, by the river the freight is $3—less than sixty six per cent of the railway rates.

The articles for which special agreements are made by the river, are subject to special on the cars, as appears by the railway official tariff

In solemn covenant Joel Mansfield and Mary Hem agreed to perpetuate the name of Mansfield and "all things were ready when the fickle Mary discovered that Joel 'could not support himself, let alone a wife.' She informed Joel thereof, and, after careful arithmetical calculation, Mary's financial argument kicked the beam, and her father simultaneously kicked Joel out of the house. Whereat Joel was greatly incensed. He saw his faithless inamorata on the streets of Chelmsford one day. He clutched her arm and hoarsely invited her to come with him "in his light canoe," enforcing his remarks with a Sharp's derringer inflicting an ugly,—but it is thought not necessarily fatal wound

Now in this way did Joel escape strangulation: a friend swore that Joel would frequently shut himself up in his room and cry bitterly for hours when "jilted by some girl;" a dentist had seen him "do many foolish things," and a doctor swore that he was a victim of "delusional insanity." Thus was the majesty of Massachusetts law vindicated, and the Hem onscrime made decent. Hence forward the harmless amusement of peppering coquettish maidens with buckshot is to be sanctioned by Chelmsford law

Several years since, a number of the Evangelical ministers of the East undertook the formation of an association whose avowed object was to procure the passage of such an amendment to the Constitution of the United States as would recognize the existence of, as well as the dependence of all nations upon a Supreme Being. Their sessions were held chiefly in Philadelphia. Judge Strong of the Supreme Court was President, and an active member of the association. Many eminent ministers however refused to participate in the movement and after issuing a few vigorous pronunciamentos the association passed out of public sight

We are informed by exchanges however that convention which met in New York recently adopted a resolution calling for an official recognition of the Almighty God as "the source of all authority in civil government." A supplemental resolution calling upon the women of America to move in the direction indicated was also adopted. Considerable hostility to the scheme has caused the utterance of some very severe strictures on the motives of the convention

A somewhat apocryphal incident is related of Mr Brooks of New York. At the time when the Poland committee's report was presented Mr Ranney, a colored Republican from South Carolina voted against censuring Brooks. Mr Brooks walked from the Democratic side of the House over to where Ranney sat and taking him by the hand said with deep feeling "Mr Ranney I feel deeply grateful for the vote you have just cast. Heretofore I have been a persistent opponent of your race but for the future I shall not only be your friend, but the friend of your race." History does not record the affecting answer of Mr Ranney

OREGON

A new bridge has been built across Mill creek at Salem. It is more substantial than the former structures across the same stream

A gentleman from Albany informs us that the Santiam Ditch being constructed at that place is being vigorously pushed forward. It is a subject of much interest among Albanians as the advantages to the city to be derived from its completion will doubtless be very great

Among Wednesday's river items in the Statesman [illegible] the following. The steamer Al[illegible] passed up the river yesterday, touching for a few minutes only at the Salem wharf. The [illegible] [illegible] was going into the city [illegible] the flouring mills last evening where she [illegible] [illegible] and fifty tons of flour and ten tons of bran, for down river

The following named professional teachers have been selected by the State Board of Education to assist at the semi annual examination in January and July under the new school law: President I M Gatch, of Willamette University; President B L Arnold of Corvallis College; Professor A J Anderson of Pacific University; Professor [illegible] Allen Macrum of Oregon City Seminary and Professor John W Johnson, of the Portland High School

The Third Judicial District Medical Society met at Reed's Opera House Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. A large number of physicians were present and the most interesting exercises took place. Dr R C Hill of Albany the retiring President, delivered a short but instructive address. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr Plummer of Albany President; D Lee of Junction and Dr Davidson of Independence Vice Presidents; C H Hall M D Recording Secretary; S R Jessup, M D, Treasurer; H Carpenter M D Corresponding Secretary; D Payton M D, Librarian; Dr Jones of Albany, Dr Hill, of Albany and Dr Richardson, Censors. Dr Jessup Dr Hill and Dr Lake reported interesting cases. The Society were then entertained by Dr Plummer's Inaugural Address after which they adjourned until 9 A M of Wednesday

The Statesman says: "We are called upon to record a painful accident which befel a butcher named Oliver Higginbottom by which he tore and lacerated his right forearm and wrist in a horrible manner. Mr H is the keeper of a butcher shop in South Salem where the accident occurred and is as follows. One of his gentleman customers entered the shop and called for some dried beef. The article wished hung at the top of the meat rack, and in order to get it Mr H mounted the meat block placing one foot on the counter but no sooner had he reached out his hand to get it than his foot slipped from the counter. As he fell he made a clutch at one of the cross bars, missing it, his arm striking a sharp meat hook which penetrated the flesh. When his weight came upon the hook it tore the flesh down to the wrist where it stopped leaving Mr H swinging clear of the counter. He remained in this condition until he could reach up with his left hand and free his mangled arm from the hook."

From the Statesman of the 5th says: Although the evening was dark and stormy, a large concourse of people assembled at the Chapel of the Willamette University to witness the graduating exercises of the Medical class of 1873. Rev Stephen Bowers opened with prayer which was followed with music by the Salem orchestra. Next came the address by Prof O P S Plummer, M D, who in a most interesting way discoursed the advancement of medicine down through the various ages noting the discoveries made by eminent Doctors of Medicine and practicing surgeons. His address was ended by dwelling upon the great men of the present day. After which the degrees were conferred upon the Graduating Class by T M Gatch, A M, President of the Willamette University. The names of the graduates are as follows: Wm E Bryant, James A Bean, James W Howard, F S Mattison, John Nicklin and Cheston M Sawtelle. Prof L R Fiske M D then delivered a charge to the class in a very brilliant and entertaining speech by referring to the duties and responsibilities they were about to assume. The valedictory was delivered in a pleasing way by one of the graduates, Mr John Nicklin. During and after the close of this address, the hoodlum element made itself apparent by a constant stamping of their feet, to the disgust of the gentlemanly portion of the audience. The benediction was pronounced by Rev Mr Owens, of Portland, after which the Medical Faculty, graduates and invited guests, repaired to the Commercial Hotel, where a sumptuous repast was spread, and the remaining portion of the evening spent in a pleasant manner; and the Commencement Exercises of the Graduating Class of 1873 closed in a manner long to be remembered by the graduates as well as the Medical Faculty

THE TERRITORIES

There is a Lodge of Perfection, and a Masonic Chapter of Rose Croix, working under a charter at Port Townsend

Coroner Edward Strand, of Jefferson county has resigned, and the Commissioners appointed N J H Fortman to fill his place

The Montana penitentiary only costs the United States $30 per annum. This should encourage those investigating the Credit Mobilier

The man Anton Sellers, reported as found dead near Tenino was, by the coroner's jury, found to have died from the effects of chloroform and exposure

The District Court is in session at Port Townsend, and last Friday was engaged in the murder trial of Hanson. Messrs Baxter & Kellogg defending

On Monday night, the 24th ult, a fire broke out in Dr Mincer's residence, at Walla Walla and notwithstanding that the firemen were soon on hand and did good work the building and contents were destroyed. The frame is still standing. The property is fully insured for $1,500

The Port Townsend Argus has been revived and is now issued as a semi weekly. Publication days, Tuesdays and Fridays. The Editor says "The policy of the Argus will be to uphold anything and everything that is fair and square, and go for that which is not, irrespective of politics, station, race, color, or any other phase variable human nature may chance to assume"

The company who are intending to place a steamer on the route between Port Townsend and Semiahmoo have had subscribed a monthly subsidy of something over two hundred dollars. It is probable that either the Favorite or Etta White will be placed on the route. The people of New Westminster are interested in the scheme and as soon as the service is established they will put on a line of stages between that place and Semiahmoo, to connect with us

Washington Territory raises "mighty big" parsnips or wonderfully large specimens of the genus mondax. The Olympia papers got up a large parsnip the other day, and now the Walla Walla Spirit says "An Olympia paper glories in having a larger parsnip than the one we spoke of some days ago, and we, not to be beaten, have just received one from Mr Raynor that will take the lead. It is 3 feet 7 inches long and is of the small variety"

The Walla Walla Spirit of the 27th ult says: Some little excitement was created the other day by the news coming from Wallula that the Indians in that section were on the war path, a hundred of them having swam the Columbia with their horses. They were all armed and painted, and were making for Priest Falls. There need be no alarm, however. These Indians have a grand pow wow, or annual meetings at some given point and that is their "biz" now

The Spirit of the West thus describes the new court house to be built at Walla Walla: "The edifice will be a T building with a 70x40 feet front and an L 58x50 feet. It will be two stories high and will have a basement 8 feet in the clear. In the basement will be located the county jail. There will be 10 cells—5 that are 7x10 and 5 7x12. Four of these cells are to be lined with quarter inch boiler iron and all made of solid masonry with concrete floors. The cells are to be so arranged as to be wholly separate from the main walls of the building—a hall passing all the way round. On this floor there will also be located a room for the jailor, one for the heating apparatus and one for wood and coal. The building is to be of brick with stone and cement foundations. The cornice also the glazed columns in the front piazza are to be of galvanized iron. The roof is to be covered with stand and groove joint of tin, and in the center of the roof will be an octagon dome 20 feet in diameter and 32 feet high surmounted with the Goddess of Justice. There will be a clock in the dome showing four dials. The building is to be warmed with one of Gould's sanitary heaters"

A gentleman of this city who is in a situation where he would naturally be kept pretty well informed in relation to the progress of the Portland Dalles and Salt Lake Railway enterprise thinks the bill as it passed Congress contained no provision for a subsidy out of the sales of the public lands. The synopsis of the bill which we took from the Washington Chronicle a few days ago contains this provision. That bill was a substitute for the original one known as the Slater bill and was in many respects similar to the original but it may be that the provision for a subsidy of $[illegible] 000 per mile out of the proceeds of sales of public lands was stricken out before the act passed. The telegraph has not mentioned such an amendment but the feeling in Congress against aiding in the construction of railways has been so intense that we were almost afraid to credit to their full extent the dispatches which brought the welcome news of the passage of the bill without mentioning any amendment. If the provision for a subsidy was stricken out, before the bill passed it only grants to the Company the right of way eighty feet in width, with suitable grounds for depots stations, etc and the right to take stone timber and other necessary materials from the public lands for use in the construction of the line of railway

BEN HOLLADAY'S CLAIM.—A dispatch of February 27th to the San Francisco Chronicle says

The Senate Committee on Claims to whom was referred the memorial and papers of Wells Fargo & Co mail sub contractors for loss of property by Indians made the following report. In 1861 Benjamin Holladay, of New York contracted with the Postoffice Department for conveying the United States mails daily from St Joseph, Mo, to Salt Lake City Utah commencing October 1 1864 and ending September 30 1868. He subcontracted with Wells Fargo & Co who now makes a claim for $65,527 65 for property, such as stables, feed, etc, destroyed on the route at several points by the Indians and for furnishing armed men to protect the Government mails. The account is very loosely made up. Excessive charges are made with but little proof to sustain them. There is no evidence that the Government agreed to protect in any way the property of contractors, and if there was, Holladay was the contractor and not Wells, Fargo & Co. On inquiring at the Postoffice Department we find that the Department received numerous complaints that the parties failed to comply with the contract, and a special agent was sent out, who reported that there were failures. The parties had been paid in full by the Department and the receipts were on file. The Committee reported adversely and asked to be discharged. It is understood that certain rumors of fraudulent acts on the part of a person connected with the overland stage route will materially damage the prospects of the bill. It is said that there are grounds for believing that the stock was run off with the connivance of the parties owning the same, to make a showing for claims against the Government

On the 27th of February Justice Kennard, who was deposed from the bench by the Kellogg legislature sent the following telegram to Senator Vickers at Washington

NEW ORLEANS, February 27

"Leave nothing unturned to secure action by Congress. Anarchy impending without it."

J KENNARD

February is sometimes called the German month, because of the many German festivities by which it is marked. There are commentators however, who suppose it is dedicated to the Germans on account of their being a bruary in it

To fill your larder with the best and at the same time economize in the distribution of cash for the same is something that few people understand how to manage. If you wish to attain these desired objects the proper way to do will be to call on Charley Martin a man who can dish up anything in his particular line to the satisfaction of the oldest inhabitant. You can bet every time on that. He is in the Grocery business of course that is understood at the northeast corner of Yamhill and First streets

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH [illegible]

CITY.

CORONER'S INQUEST HELD.—In [illegible] with the requirements of the law, Coro[ner] [illegible] proceeded to summon a jury and hold an [inquest] yesterday morning over the remains of [illegible] who was drowned at the foot of Morris[on] [street] on Tuesday evening. After being remo[ved from] the water where the stiffened finge[rs of the] drowned man were found grasping the [illegible] the wheel of the steamer Mary Bell, the b[ody was] taken on board that steamer, where it [remained] all night. Early yesterday morning th[e body] were removed to the undertaker's where [the cor]oner and jury were assembled. From [the evidence] elicited at the inquest it appears that th[e deceased] was named Bernard Gannon. He was [illegible] so far as known. About one year ago, he [came to] this city. A good portion of th[e time] he was employed on the [illegible] Oregon City, and the new Custom Hous[e]. Gannon had been employed on board [a] barge, and at the time he met his death [was] engaged. He was an Irishman by birth [illegible] about 40 years. Years ago he came to [illegible] where he engaged in mining pursuits, [subse]quently he went to Idaho, where he re[mained up] to the time of his removal to this city [illegible] known, he was a quiet, sober and industr[ious man] and has no relatives living in the State [illegible] person were found a g[illegible] plain silver [illegible] chain, and the sum of [illegible] 12½ in coin [illegible] and important papers [illegible] said to have [been in his] possession at the time of his death, or [illegible] posit in the safe at the Russ House [where the] place he was stopping. Deceased was [a member] in good standing, of Hassalo Lodge, [illegible] The deceased will be buried to-day with [the] ceremonies and rites of that Order.

The jury, after an investigation of th[e] [re]turned a verdict that Gannon came t[o his death] by accidental drowning

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.—In pursuan[ce] made by Mr Eliot, the Superintenden[t] for this county, a meeting of the teach[ers] Public Schools was held last Saturd[ay] Central School House. The principal [illegible] the meeting was the appointment by th[e] [Superin]tendent of a committee consisting of [illegible] Hodgedon and Bodman and Messrs P[illegible] son and Williamson. The duties of the[m] are to report a plan of organization of [a] Institute for this county, which shall [illegible] to the present one. THURSDAY MORNING MARCH 6 1873

CITY.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—In compliance with the requirements of the law Coroner Dryer proceeded to summon a jury and hold an inquest yesterday morning over the remains of the man who was drowned at the foot of Morrison street on Tuesday evening. After being removed from the water where the stiffened fingers of the drowned man were found grasping the buckets of the wheel of the steamer Mary Hall the body was taken on board that steamer where it remained all night. Early yesterday morning the remains were removed to the undertaker's where the Coroner and jury were assembled. From the facts elicited at the inquest it appears that the deceased was named Bernard Gannon. He was unmarried so far as known. About one year ago he came to this city. A good portion of that time he was employed on the locks at Oregon City, and the new Custom House. Of late Gannon had been employed on board a sand barge, and at the time he met his death he was so engaged. He was an Irishman by birth and aged about 40 years. Years ago he came to California where he engaged in mining pursuits and subsequently he went to Idaho where he remained up to the time of his removal to this city. So far as known, he was a quiet sober and industrious man and has no relatives living in the State. On his person were found a good plain silver watch and chain, and the sum of $22 12½ in coin. Valuable and important papers are said to have been in his possession at the time of his death or were in deposit in the safe at the Russ House at which place he was stopping. Deceased was a member, in good standing, of Hassalo Lodge I O O F. The deceased will be buried to day with the usual ceremonies and rites of that Order.

The jury after an investigation of the case returned a verdict that Gannon came to his death by accidental drowning.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.—In pursuance of a call made by Mr Pratt the Superintendent of schools for this county a meeting of the teachers of the Public Schools was held last Saturday at the Central School House. The principal feature of the meeting was the appointment by the Superintendent of a committee consisting of the Misses Hodgedon and Bodman and Messrs Pratt Johnson and Williamson. The duties of the committee are to report a plan of organization of a Teachers' Institute for this county, which shall be superior to the present one. A portion of this committee constitute the Executive Committee of the existing Teachers' Association. It is therefore, expected that the action of the last committee is to be such as will result beneficially to the fraternity and sisterhood of teachers in the county in the organization of an association best calculated to secure the ends designed.

MISSIONARY APPOINTMENTS — The Oregon Churchman contains the following missionary appointments for March

There will also be an Ember Communion at Trinity Church on Saturday morning of this week at 9 o'clock

COUNTY APPORTIONMENT —Under the old school law, the apportionment of the school fund in each of the counties of the State was made on the first Monday of March. The new laws passed at the last session of the Legislature, provides that the general apportionment shall not take place until the third Monday of the same month. This is for the purpose of allowing as much of the tax as possible to be collected before the apportionment is made. Many of the clerks of the school districts who are not aware of the exact provisions of the law in this respect, may wonder at the apparent delay in the division of the school money.

BALLAST—GEMINI —The bark Gemini, which has been lying at anchor abreast the bone yard since her arrival at this port, was hauled up to McCraken's wharf yesterday morning. She is now discharging her ballast of sand. The vessel is doubtless under charter to carry a cargo of grain to Europe. She will be in a condition to receive cargo in a few days.

REFUSING TO ASSIST —A man named Murphy was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning on a charge of refusing to assist an officer in making an arrest. The Court fined the defendant $25 and costs, and not liquidating, he was consigned to the tender mercies of the Captain of the chain gang.

PROPELLER CAST —A new propeller, five feet and six inches in diameter, was cast at the Willamet Iron Works this week, for the tug Varuna. The propeller will not be used at the present, having been cast as an extra one in the event of an accident.

ASSAULTING AN OFFICER —Mrs Turk was arrested yesterday and arraigned in the Police Court on a charge of assaulting an officer. The court imposed a fine of $10 and costs. Being unable to pay she was committed to jail.

BROUGHT OVER —The bark Northumbria, which has been receiving wheat at the east side wharf for the last week, was drawn to this side yesterday. She will take on board a small quantity of grain, and then proceed down to Astoria.

A Ehman builds neat and substantial cottage houses, hard finished, for $650. Prices for story and a half and two story houses reasonable in proportion. Plans of houses on hand. Inquire at 105 First street, opposite postoffice.

SALEM AND THIS SIDE

A ride of three hours from the east side depot on the O & C R R brings us up at Salem.

We stopped there Tuesday morning.

Found everybody taking matters quite easy—its dull you know.

Much rain—muddy streets.

Chemeketa House now conducted by Wesley Graves. Good table surroundings agreeable. We lingered there.

Inside of Court House being finished. Frame [illegible] up.

Work on Methodist Church discontinued for the present. Temporarily roofed to keep out dampness.

Painters at work on residence of I N Cooke.

[illegible] building.

Agricultural Works ready for occupancy. Planing Mill and Keg Factory now in operation in that building.

Sisters Academy will soon be ready for the purposes intended.

Other improvements progressing.

Farmer, Statesman and Mercury offices occupy rooms in Stewart's Block.

The absence of State Printers makes Gray building, second floor look desolate. Mr Waite Job Printer and C D Snyder Binder occupy upper floor.

Sociable in contemplation for benefit of the fire boys. The ladies of different churches have it in charge. Of course it will be immense. Al Croisan Chief Engineer is popular.

Exercises at Willamet University Tuesday evening largely attended. Supper served at Opera House.

The gay season is not so gay as it was.

Patent medicine man has pitched his tent in Salem. Business inactive.

The membership of the Turn Verein keeps up well and the organization prospereth.

H Keithly, who served his time out is on the streets. He was connected with the strip gamists, and that was why he went to Castle [illegible].

Everybody waiting for the arrival of the A[illegible].

T H DeLess sent to the penitentiary for forgery, from this county was pardoned by the Governor on Tuesday. Cause good behavior.

Gov Joel Palmer returned to his home, in Dayton, yesterday. Says they need funds on the Siletz Reservation to cover indebtedness.

Postmaster Rickey and his assistants Sam Irwin and Bliss understand their business. Everything is system in the Salem Postoffice.

Col Scovil is the accommodating mail and express carrier.

Young lady friends of Prof Rowland in numbers at depot to see that gentleman off.

Homeward bound.

Forty thousand bushels of wheat in R Hanna's warehouse. Gervais Catholic Church at this place will be finished next summer.

Flouring mill in operation at Aurora.

Good time made by passenger train between Salem and Aurora.

Conductor Root is a most gentlemanly official.

CITY FINANCES

The following correspondence between His Honor Mayor Wasserman and W S Caldwell Esq concerning the financial condition of the city government, was read for information

MAYOR'S OFFICE PORTLAND }
Oregon Feb 5 1873 }

W S Caldwell Auditor and Clerk City of Portland—Dear Sir Having been absent from the city during the time the tax levies were agreed upon in committee I would like to satisfy myself on the following points before approving said ordinance

First—Are not the levies on a higher estimate than the wants of the city require

Second—Wherein lies the difference between the levies of 7½ mills last year and 11 1 10 mills this year

Third—What is the condition of the finances of the city this year as compared with last year —together with such other information as you may be able to give to enable me to arrive at a conclusion on the points mentioned

Respectfully yours etc
PHILIP WASSERMAN
Mayor

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR AND CLERK }
PORTLAND March 3 1873 }

Hon Philip Wasserman Mayor—Sir In reply to yours of the 28th ult asking for information as to the present condition of the finances of the city as compared with last year the necessity for increased rate of taxation proposed by the ordinances now in your hands and such other information as will give you a correct idea of the contemplated expenditures for the present year I beg leave to call your attention to my annual report to the Common Council January 1873 (a copy of which is herewith transmitted), to the ordinances making appropriations and to submit the following explanatory thereof

Assuming that your inquiries are only directed to those funds known for 1872 as General, Police, Street Lamps, Interest on Bonds, Streets in Front of Public Property, and Police Building Fund and for 1873 as General, Police Street Lamps, Interest on Bonds Streets in Front of Public Property and Fire Department Funds (the other funds named in my report being in no way affected by or affecting the rate of taxation) it will be seen that the balances in the Treasury January 1, 1872, were

General Fund	$1,4[illegible]8 61
Police	49 51
Street Lamps	1 895 29
Interest on Bonds	1 135 97
Streets in front of Public Property	1 024 71
Police Building	809 67
Total	$19 952 74

To this should be added the $8,035 67 currency derived from the sale of Block 172 (Building Fund) afterward transferred to the Police Building Fund as $7 090 11, gold making the total balance $27 012 85 from which should be deducted the outstanding warrants, amounting to $9 284 83, leaving a net balance available for the expenses of the year of $18 358 02

The balances in the Treasury, January 1, 1873, were

General Fund	$2 317 0[illegible]
Police	1 178 74
Lamps	2 440 88
Interest on bonds	418 98
Streets	79 50
Police Building	409 86
Total	$7 500 03

The indebtedness at that date was $8 843 25, or an excess of liabilities over balances in the Treasury of $1 272 62, making a difference in the available assets of the two years of $19 030 04 in favor of the year 1872, equivalent to an increase in taxation, on the basis of this year's valuations of about two and nine tenths (0 029) mills

The amount received for taxes in 1872 was

General	$44 312 64
Streets Lamps	11 081 90
Interest on bonds	4 432 51
Police Building	6 643 13
Total	$66,470 08

Being for a tax of seven and one half mills (0075) on a gross valuation of $9 104,525

The gross valuation of taxable property for this year is $7,911,440, which at the same ratio of tax collected as on the previous year, would produce $51,429 87, or a difference of $15,010 21 to raise, which would require an increase in this year's tax of two and two tenths mills (0022). That is to say, a tax of nine and seven tenths mills (0097) on this year's valuations will only produce the same amount as a tax of seven and one half mills (0075) on the valuation of last year

The revenue for 1872, applicable to the objects for which the several funds under consideration were created, was

Taxes collected as above	$ 66 470 08
Licences etc (general fund)	27 408 59
Fines and fees (Police)	5,020 70
Tax 1871 (Street)	3 70
	$ 98 90[illegible]
In Treasury January 1 1872 as above	19 952 74
Building fund transferred as above	7 090 11
Total	$125 551 97
From which should be deducted the amount of indebtedness January 1st	$ 9 284 83

Leaving a net revenue of $117,207 14 to meet the expenditures of the year.

The expenditures during the year were

General Fund	$ 60 768 5[illegible]
Police	[illegible]
Lamp	11 005 29
Street	2 920 08
Police Building	24 198 70
Interest on Bonds	5,060 00
Total	$118 53[illegible] 76

Or an excess of expenditures over assets of $1, 272 02

The estimated expenditure for 1873 being the unexpended balance of appropriations 1872, and the amount of appropriations made by ordinance since January 1st including the ordinance making appropriations for the Fire Department now in your hands, are as follows

General Fund	$ 52 335 07
Interest on Bonds	5 130 00
Lamps	13 482 10
Police	24 000 00
Streets	707 50
Fire Department	26 460 00
	$122 624 76
Add indebtedness Jan 1st	8 843 25
Total	$131 468 01

The estimated revenues are

Licenses etc (general fund)	$27 000 00
Fines and fees (police)	5 000 00
Balance in treasury January 1st	7 560 03
Total	$39 560 03

Leaving a balance of $91 907 98 to be provided for

It is estimated that the taxes levied by the ordinances, now in your hands, will produce

General	00[illegible]	$31 16[illegible]
Interest	0008	6 3[illegible] 19
Lamps	0016	10 0[illegible]
Police	0025	[illegible] 78
Fire Department	0 5[illegible]	55 917 6[illegible]
Total	0131 (13 1 10 mills)	$91 [illegible]

If we assume that the estimates of receipts and expenditures are absolutely correct there will be a deficiency of $ [illegible] 3 71 with no provision for contingencies which brings me to the consideration of your question as to whether the levies are not on a higher estimate than the wants of the city require

It will readily be seen that the estimated receipts are not too large to meet the estimated expenditures. The estimated expenditures above named are the sums appropriated by ordinances all of which have been approved and are in force except the one relating to the Fire Department. The ordinances evince care in preparation, and for me to call in question their correctness would be obviously improper

To enable you to fully understand the situation of the several Funds I submit the following

For payment of interest on bonds, the sum appropriated $5,650 is the amount of interest to fall due during the year. There is in the Treasury $418 18 leaving the sum of $5,231 82 to be raised. The proposed tax of eight-tenths mills will produce $5 466 19. The surplus ($235 03) is not too large to provide for the possible failure to collect the full amount estimated

For street lamps and appropriations for lighting erection and repairs are $13 482 10. There was in the Treasury, January 1st $[illegible] 70 90. The estimated amount of tax (0016) is $10 932 98 making a total of $13 403 88. Of this amount under existing contracts for lighting and repairs there will be a surplus for new lamps extra repairs and contingencies of not to exceed $1 000—probably much less

STREET FUND

Indebtedness January 1st	$ 1 808 20
Amount appropriated by Ordinance No [illegible]	4 190 00

Tax (0025)	17 052 78
Total	[illegible]

This disposes of all the amounts proposed to be raised by special tax except that for the expenses of the Fire Department. As the expenses of the Department have heretofore been paid out of the General Fund, it is proposed to consider it in that connection at this time. The balance remaining in the Police Building Fund has been transferred to the General Fund and the account closed. The balance in the Street Fund ($7[illegible] 50) can also be considered as merged in the General Fund, as the bulk of the expenses heretofore paid out of this fund is provided for by the General Fund Appropriation ordinance

There was in the Treasury January 1, 1873

General Fund	$ [illegible]

It therefore appears that there is the sum of [illegible] to be raised to meet the deficiency

The ordinances now in your hands provide for a

General tax [illegible]	$31 135 [illegible]
Fire Department tax [illegible]	[illegible] 88
Total	$56 [illegible]

Or $[illegible] 61 less than the estimated balance of expenditures with no provision for contingencies except from balances arising from appropriations over estimated, if any there be

Respectfully yours etc
W S CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk

An ordinance extending the time for the commencement of the work upon, and completion of the bridge across the Wallamet river was amended by striking out of section 2 the word 'ten' and inserting the word 'thirty' giving the company thirty days after the approval of the ordinance in which to file a bond

A motion to adjourn was made and lost on a tie vote

The last named ordinance as amended was then read second and third times by title and was lost. Yeas Besser Burton and Moreland. Noes, Caywood Hallock and Story

MISCELLANEOUS

Resolutions were adopted instructing the Auditor to give due notice of the proposed improvement of parts of Jefferson and B streets

On motion the Council adjourned

Messrs Geo P Rowell & Co, the celebrated and popular New York Advertising Agency, engaged advertising in gross and detail for large customers in a better and cheaper mode than they can do it themselves. This we sincerely believe they can do because it is their sole business—their specialty because they get space at lowest wholesale rates and because of their intimate and cordial relations with publishers. If we wish to spend ten thousand dollars in general advertising over the country notwithstanding our own experience and knowledge of advertising styles and of rates we would employ them under certain directions. We would save money trouble worry and the business would be done at least as well, if not better than we could do it ourselves —American Manufacturer's Review and Pittsburg Price Current

PRICES MARKED DOWN —Polite and attentive clerks will be happy to wait upon customers who are desirous of procuring a No 1 article of clothing at the most reasonable prices. Perils of the Season

The inhospitable winds and chilly fogs of spring are unwelcome visitors to the feeble and ailing and are by no means congenial to the healthy. If there is any germ of disease lurking in the system they are sure to develop it unless proper precautions are taken to prevent such a misfortune. Bilious complaints dyspepsia nervous debility rheumatism irregularities of the bowels and disorders which affect the kidneys are all aggravated by the peculiar condition of the atmosphere at this season. Invalids who are subject to any of these disorders or have a predisposition thereto should therefore forearm themselves against danger by strengthening the digestive organs the nervous system and the muscular fibre with a daily dose of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. There is no period of the year at which a stimulating tonic and regulating medicine is more urgently required than in the spring and there is no preparation of that class in which so many valuable restorative and preventive properties are combined in such a perfectly safe and harmless form as in Hostetter's Bitters. It may be stated positively as an uncontradictable fact that a course of this agreeable vegetable specific commenced now and continued through the spring months will effectually shield the inhabitants of marshy and miasmatic localities from the intermittent and remittent fevers caused by unhealthy exhalations from a wet soil

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.--1860--X.
This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits

A Railroad Watch.
TRAVELERS BY RAILROAD FREQUENTLY FIND their Watches completely demoralized by the continuous jar of the train. To overcome this difficulty has long been a problem with watchmakers, and it is now successfully accomplished in the new grade made by the
AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY OF WALTHAM.
This Watch is made in the most substantial manner, on the most approved principles, and combines all the recent improvements. It has a new micrometrical regulator, by which the slightest variation can be easily corrected. It is carefully adjusted and may be entirely relied on to run accurately, wear well, and
ENDURE THE HARDEST USAGE,
without any derangement whatever. We confidently recommend this Watch to the trade and the public, as the Best Watch for the Price in the Market.
The Superintendent of one of the Nevada Mines writes that:
"YOUR (WALTHAM) WATCHES ARE THE ONLY ONES THAT WILL STAND THE SHOCK OF BLASTING. WE HAVE IN THIS MINE BOTH FOREIGN AND DIFFERENT KINDS OF AMERICAN WATCHES, BUT THE WALTHAM WATCH IS THE ONLY ONE ADAPTED TO OUR PURPOSE"
The full trade mark engraved on the plate of each Watch is

The Detroit Free Press relates an incident which occurred on the return of an excursion party from that city Soon after the boat left Toledo the steward was approached by an excited individual, who asked him if he was the captain The steward replied in the negative, at the same time giving his rank "Have you the power to put a man out of the cabin?" inquired the stranger "Well, yes, if he is disorderly, I have," replied the steward. "Well, sir, look in here and see them will you?" said the stranger, leading said official round to the door. The steward looked in upon the motley group, and replied that he saw nothing out of the way" "You don't, eh? Don't you see a man in there hugging a woman?" "Well, yes," replied the steward, "but what about that? Hasn't a fellow a right to embrace his wife?" "That's what I want you to run him out for," replied the stranger, dancing around "that's my wife and I've stood it so long that I've got mad!"

A retired clergyman sends us an account of a little affair that happened in his place It appears that there was a young woman, a fine spirited girl, engaged at a wash tub, opposite an open door. Just behind her was a young man, as is generally the case, and in the yard was an old buck that was allowed the freedom of the premises, which is not always the case, we are glad to say Well, this buck came up to the door and looked in, and the young man going close behind the young woman, pointed his finger straight at the buck and the old fellow recognizing at once the pressing character of this mute invitation, put down his head and dashed forward, and the miserable man stepped one side and fled and the young woman, all unconscious of the arrangements received the awful shock without warning and passed over the tub, and the air for an instant appeared to be full of slippers and wet clothes, and hot water and suds. And the next minute the goat came flying out of the door at a dreadful speed bald the whole length of his spine, and with a wild look in his eye And for an hour afterward he stood behind the barn, scratching his chin and trying to recall all the circumstances in the unfortunate affair —Danbury News

In a letter to the New York Times Grace Greenwood explains the advantages of being a non voter. She says

I doubt if you, looking down from the height of the elective franchise an eminence which you share with the most fiery and high toned Celt of the "bloody Sixth," fully realize the little advantages of my disfranchised position its absolute political independence and freedom from party prejudices and ties Many things in politics disturb and vex me, but I have always the sweet solace of speaking my mind I am no partisan Why indeed, should a woman be? unless her husband is running for Congress, and we have not come to that yet though we have seen trouble I am under no obligation to put my trust in any party princes—to love or hate according to party policy I can perceive a glimmer of goodness in a Democrat and a taint of original sin in a Republican I can treat myself to the luxury of incredulity when miracles of virtue are attributed to this or that party idol A little Catholic girl was telling her schoolmates stories of the miraculous cures her priest had wrought in the name of his patron saint "I don't believe it" said a sturdy little Protestant "Well" replied the small Romanist, "if I were you I wouldn't believe it, but, you see, I've got to

Scene in the French Assembly

The Paris correspondent of the New York Times has given a graphic sketch of a debate in the French Assembly on Jan 30th The occasion was the utterance of certain bitter charges against the officials of the Empire on account of the war contracts

Among those attacked was M Carayon Latour, who commanded a brigade of Mobiles near Lyons He had said nothing during the speech of M Challemel but now calmly entered the tribune, to make the following declaration

"I was sent to Lyons during the war at the head of a battalion of Mobiles I was painfully surprised to find the red flag floating from all the public edifices My battalion was sent to the village of Venissieux near Lyons and there again I found the red flag of the Commune but I had not been there four hours before ordering this flag removed That act provoked on the part of the Mayor and the Municipal Council a mortal hatred against me and my soldiers I ought to say that my Mobiles conducted themselves admirably at Venissieux but the Mayor of the village made a most unjust report to the Prefect at Lyons against us I saw this report M Challemel Lacour sent it to Gen Bressolles, with the announcement in his own hand writing 'Have all those men shot'"

M Carayon Latour said no more but as can be understood, the words produced a startling effect There were cries on every side The former prefect actually staggered into the tribune, and in his confusion he at first admitted the possibility of such an order and then said he did not recall it to mind that it was exaggerated and at any rate the order must be produced in his own handwriting before he was called upon to answer for it A member cried that it had been destroyed whereupon, amid cries of "Oh! oh!" M Challemel Lacour denied its having existed M Lassarre then said "I have to state to the Assembly that I have heard from Gen Bressolles himself that the paper to which allusion has been made had most certainly been in his hands There was great emotion at those words, heightened by the cry of a member who said The word of Hon M Carayon Latour is quite enough for this Assembly The Right rose en masse and with the utmost agitation, and exclamations of all kinds were hurled across the chamber Several members of the Left became very aggressive in language and manner, while M Langlois, after tearing his own hair and making it stand on end went about shaking his fists and roaring like a lion In the midst of an inconceivable tumult, M Grevy shouted that the debate was adjourned until to-day, and thus put an end to the session by putting on his hat and by leaving his chair It was a long time ere the confusion ceased and fears of a rough and tumble fight in the hall were expressed by several of the reporters Probably a night's reflection will calm this agitation in a measure, but it is certain that some hard words will be used to-day Great indignation is expressed by the army at this revelation, and all the more since M Challemel Lacour, Gambetta's friend, and one of the immaculates of the 4th of September, has been exceedingly bitter in his accusations against others

A Des Moines correspondent of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil after stating that the patrons of husbandry have a membership of 7 000 in Iowa gives the following synopsis of their doings and purposes One third of all the elevators and grain warehouses in the State are now owned or controlled by the Granges and no less than 5 000,000 of grain were shipped to Chicago on Grange account prior to December 1, last The number of cattle and hogs shipped in the same manner is enormous, and the reports received from all these shipments show an increased profit to the farmer of from 10 to 40 per cent, as compared with the usage received at the hands of the average "middleman" in times previous In the matter of purchasing agricultural implements direct from the manufacturers, the Grange purchases of the State have saved the farmers, by actual computation and comparison of the price at the implement store, $365,000. For instance, one class of reapers rating as No 1, retailing at $240 was sold to the Grange, in fours or more, at $140—a clear "save" of $100 on each machine During the present year not less than $100,000 will be invested by the Granges in the establishment of manufactories and elevators throughout the State, thus, by bringing skilled labor among them, creating a home demand for the products of the farm

The California Farmer giving the above table adds

"The relative price of California hops will attract attention According to this commercial estimate California hops are the best in the world A considerable part of the small crop raised in this State last year has been sent forward to the New York market So far as we can learn, the experiments in hop culture in California have been very satisfactory The quality and quantity are above the average in any other part of the Union While the local market is limited, there is always a market abroad as there is for all the wool not wanted for home consumption Some day the hop fields may become a prominent feature of agriculture here There is nothing in the facts thus far to warrant any other conclusion"

Those who have turned their attention to the subject of Hop culture inform us that the soil of Oregon and Washington Territory is fully as well adapted to the production of this crop as that of the adjoining State of California, and we give these figures and facts more to encourage the cultivation in our State than to impart information concerning the market We are satisfied that the culture here would prove one of the most profitable investments to be made in our State and would be glad in the "diversification of industrial interests so loudly called for to see some of our farmers undertake this branch

Home Produce Market

We find that our market for domestic produce remains very dull Disarrangement of shipping facilities by sea for Sound ports has been a matter of serious loss to shippers here who have heretofore done considerable business in that direction and with the dullness in the market of San Francisco for most articles of Oregon produce and exceedingly stormy weather for the past few days this has caused a depression in our market which is quite manifest on all hands Prices however are generally firm and dealers are calculating on a very fair amount of business upon the opening of spring We are informed by a gentleman that there is probably yet in Linn county a surplus of 100,000 bushels of wheat on [illegible] We deem the estimate a high one but there is doubtless a large quantity and more than we see facilities at present for marketing before the coming harvest

To Architects.

THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS FOR THE construction of a STATE CAPITOL BUILDING for the State of Oregon hereby give notice that they are ready for the submission of plans and specifications for the construction of a permanent and durable STATE HOUSE for said State and to that end they hereby request Architects who desire to submit to them such plans and specifications to do so by forwarding the same to the office of said Board at Salem Oregon, on or before the 21st day of April A D 1873

It is intended that said Capitol Building shall be economically constructed, and be of such dimensions as will be suitable for a young State like Oregon,

The sum of fifteen hundred dollars will be allowed for such plans and specifications as may be accepted by the Board

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions! [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians or friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Post Office or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary one of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are too ignorant and because too lazy too work [illegible] These are shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, protected patients' letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy any person who may call at his offices of his ability to treat disease that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
